"She KNOWS THE LAW and is able to catch the smallest of details that DO MAKE A DIFFERENCE in a case," writes a reverent client. Much is attributed to Julia Henry's depth of knowledge including her civil litigation experience, her experience as a visiting associate family law judge, and her family law specialization. Julia has handled multi-million dollar divorce cases, as well as, hotly contested child-centered disputes.

While she actively pursues settlement in every case, she is equipped with extensive trial experience if a family law matter requires resolution through trial by a jury or Court. Julia is a trained family law arbitrator and knows that privacy of the parties' issues and their assets are important to the resolution of a case.

Julia earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Arkansas and her law degree from Texas Southern University and has served as a Visiting Associate Judge for the Dallas County Family Courts. She is Board Certified in Family Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.

Julia's professional mantra is a quote from Mahatma Ghandi, "Peace is not the absence of conflict, but the ability to cope with it."

When asked what would be said of her and her practice, Julia states, "She fully understood my case and my situation. She furthered my goals."
